

I pay for XM Services, including the traffic and weather updates. I do not feel that any competitors, including the National Association of Broadcasters, should restrict my choices. After all, I selected these services in the open marketplace. XM provides a service that I am willing to purchase. It assists me on a daily basis. Please consider this when making any decision concerning restriction.